

Ted Seifert - Class of 1970

(Inducted in 1991)

Ted Seifert, along with Pam Gill-Fisher, was inducted to Dixon High School's Hall of Fame in 1991. It was no surprise that Ted was selected. Ted participated in five sports at Dixon High School: Basketball, Football, Track, Baseball and Tennis. As a freshman, Ted was selected to an All-Tournament football team. He was also on the varsity tennis team his freshman year. In 1967, Ted played on the league co-championship football team, as well competed on the varsity tennis and track team. In 1968, Ted's junior year, Ted was a unanimous selection to the All-League football team after he helped the football team win another league title. He was also selected to the All-League basketball team that year. In 1969, Ted was again selected to the All-League football team as an offensive lineman, Co-Captain of the team, All Northern California Lineman of the Year and won the Helms Foundation Award. That same year he was on the All-Tournament basketball teams at several tournaments. After graduating from Dixon High School, Ted attended the University of California, Berkeley where he played football with much success. In 1973, he received the Brick Muller Award as the most valuable lineman on the team as well as the Henry Bates Award given by the Grid Club of Sacramento as the outstanding senior from Northern California. While at Berkeley, he played the center position and lettered in 1972 and 1973. After graduation, Ted was drafted by World Football League where he played for several years with the Southern California Suns. Ted currently runs a successful real estate business and is the owner operator of the Silveyville Christmas Tree and Pumpkin Farm. Ted is married to Jeri Lynn and has three children Jennifer, Brent and Corrine.
